Hi Danielle,

Attached are draft responses. Those highlighted in green and orange should be discussed and those highlighted in orange could result in changes to the work plan approach.

Thanks!

Kim

Hi Danielle,

Attached are the responses Scott and I got through today and we will continue working on them tomorrow. We highlighted those to discuss in green. So far, there are not significant changes to the work plan but there are some decisions we'll need to make regarding some of the responses and how to deal with them. We'll send an updated response to comment file tomorrow and let you know where we stand. Then let us know when you'd like to discuss.

Thanks!

Kim

Hi Danielle,

I've skimmed them but need Scott's help with some technical interpretation to determine potential impacts to the work plan. So I have pulled them into a response to comments matrix to review with Scott this week and get his input for drafting responses. We will back to you as soon as we go through them.

Thanks!

Kim

Hi Scott and Kim,

Have you read through these comments yet? I would like to get your perspective on how these impact the Work Plan and what you think would be the best path forward.
